Numeracy Champions

Message from Sophie Lancaster, SSELP Maths Coordinator 2024/25:

I wanted to take this opportunity to introduce myself. I will be covering as the SSELP Maths coordinator in September.

I am looking forward to working collaboratively with you and your colleagues to improve how mathematics is taught and learnt across SSELP. There is an exciting opportunity available to our teachers, leaders and support staff to become 'Numeracy Champions'. This will include becoming more confident in mathematics, having the opportunity to work collaboratively with other professionals and learning how to lead parent workshops.

Please find below the details of the free CPD available – Numeracy champions – supporting families (primary) or numeracy champions – supporting adults (secondary).

<https://www.nationalnumeracy.org.uk/training-and-workshops/numeracy-champions>

We hope to have a trained team of numeracy champions to work collaboratively to support families in mathematics across SSELP.

Please could you provide staff with this CPD opportunity and e-mail any interest or questions to myself at lancasters@pipworth-cps.sheffield.sch.uk

Developing Concepts in the Curriculum: 8th November and 3rd December 2024

Following discussion at SSELP headteacher meetings and recommendations in recent Ofsted reports, SSELP is working in partnership with Hull Collaborative Academy Trust who will deliver a conference and subject leader workshops on developing concepts across the curriculum. It will be led by Melissa Milner, Ofsted inspector who has led an inspection in a SSELP school.

We are delighted that Nick Whittaker has agreed to run another bespoke, in-depth programme for SSELP next year. Nick will work initially with Maths subject leads and SENCOs on developing the curriculum and adapting teaching for pupils who are not keeping up with intended learning. It is hoped this will form a model for other subjects.

There are places available for 12 schools on this programme.

Please see the attached flyer for details and book places by emailing SSELP. Please confirm name, school, role and email contact details for each attendee.
